

Desert Circus Gives $12,000 to Charity, Churches

Percentage Profit Best In History

Total Slightly Below Last Year's Record Figure

Desert Circus Association today turned over $12,000 to charitable and religious organizations, and marked percentagewise the largest total ever raised in Desert Circus history.

Co-chairman Sam Janis and Mac MacDonald reported that although the Desert Circus fell a little short of last year's record profit, the organization held expenditures down and in this way was able to show a greater percentage profit.

By comparison, this year's Desert Circus had 15 events and last year there were only 10, indicating the great growth of the annual event.

LARGEST PROFITS were made off such events as the Award Fund, Immunity buttons, Big Top Ball, Appeal Letter and Carnival, which totaled just over $15,200.

The funds were disbursed to the following charitable organizations:

Boy Scouts, $500; Girl Scouts, $600; Boys Club, $750; Desert Museum Building Fund, $1,000; Youth Center, $750; Welfare and Friendly Aid Society, $1,000; Elks Welfare Fund, $1,500; Howard Haddock — for recreational purposes, $550; Junior Women's Club, $250; Jayceettes, $500; Desert Hospital, $300; Little League, $650; Cub Pack No. 80, $500; Campfire Girls, $200; Police Reserve, $250.

PALM SPRINGS churches to receive $150 each were listed as: Assembly of God, Our Lady of Solitude, Our Lady of Guadalupe, St. Theresa's Catholic Church, Palm Springs Community Church, St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Temple Isaiah, First Church of Christ, Scientist, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Bethlehem Pentecostal, Lutheran Church, Seventh Day Adventist, Four Square Gospel, St. John's Baptist, Christian Science Group, Church of Religion Science, Desert Church of Religious Science and the First Church of Religious Science.

The date for next year's Desert Circus was tentatively set by the Association for March 12 through 16, and the meeting of the Association will be held the first Wednesday in December.

Pre-setting the date for the 22nd annual Desert Circus was necessary to allow the Chamber of Commerce publicity bureau to place the date on national event calendars.

11 Individuals, Five Companies Indicted

HOLLYWOOD — Eleven individuals and five companies, including Confidential magazine and its publisher, Robert Harrison, were reportedly accused of criminal libel and other charges today in a secret county Grand Jury indictment.

The indictment was returned late Wednesday at the conclusion of a two-day Grand Jury probe into the controversial scandal magazine. It was termed "secret" until returned before a judge because Harrison and the others involved were out of the state.

THE INDICTMENT reportedly listed charges of conspiracy to publish criminal libel, publish and distribute lewd and obscene material, disseminate illegal information about abortions, and disseminate information about male rejuvenation.

Among those reportedly indicted also was Francesca de Scaffa, beautiful former wife of Bruce Cabot. She was identified Tuesday by former Confidential editor Howard Rushmore as one of the

House Cuts Own Budget By $2 Million

Seen as Sign Economy Drive Rolling Unchecked

WASHINGTON — The congressional economy drive today caught up, in a small way, with Congress itself.

The House Appropriations Committee, which has been dealing out cuts averaging 7 per cent against the record high budgets of the government's executive agencies, reduced by about 2.7 per cent next year's spending plan of the House itself.

SMALL AS IT was, amounting to only $2,208,343, the recommended curtailment came as fresh evidence that the congressional economy drive was rolling unchecked, despite a stern new warning from President Eisenhower against unwarranted cuts.

In the face of the President's press conference comments on the dangers of "trifling" with the national defense, House defense experts clung to their $2,500,000,000 cut in Eisenhower's request for new defense funds.

REP. GEORGE H. MAHON (D-Tex.), chairman of a House appropriations subcommittee, said as far as he knew no effort will be made to reconsider the group's tentative $2,500,000,000 cut in the defense budget.

"I think the President is absolutely right in opposing rash, indiscriminate reductions," Mahon said. Whatever cuts are made by our subcommittee will be designed to improve efficiency and economy of our military forces."

Drive Association To Hear Progress Report Friday

Palm Canyon Drive Association will hold a "Progress Report" meeting at 4 p.m. Friday, in the City Council Chambers, Chairman Cully Nichols announced today.

Officers will report on efforts to secure widening of North Palm Canyon Drive to Stevens Road, along with paving, lighting, curbs and gutters and sidewalks.

Present will be Planning Director Hy Ranes and Public Works Director Frank Hamerschlag.

Other officers besides Nichols are George Gannon, vice president; Polly Isenagel, secretary-treasurer; and Culver Parker, executive secretary.

Benson Denounces House Move to Kill Soil Bank Plan

WASHINGTON — Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson today denounced the House move to kill the multi-billion dollar soil bank program next year as "false economy . . . without justification."

Benson said the House had "prejudged" the program's acreage reserve section on a "partial evaluation" of its 1956 operation.

HE SAID THE program was intended to cut down on price depressing surplus crops, but there is "every likelihood" the surpluses will pile up farther if the House action stands.

His statement was released while Benson was testifying before the House Agriculture Committee to renew his plea for legislation to let him set farm price support at lower levels.

His office said that because of "recent legislation developments" presumably the House action, Benson and his wife have canceled a trip they planned to make to South America starting next Wednesday.

THE HOUSE VOTED Wednesday 192 to 187 to eliminate authority for 1958 acreage reserve program and reduce the long-range conservation reserve section of the soil bank from 450 to 250 billion dollars annually. Farmers receive government payments for taking farmland out of corn, cotton, wheat, rice and tobacco production and placing it in the so-called acreage reserve.

If the soil bank acres of these crops are "forced back into production" next year, Benson said, the cost of price supports probably will "be greater than would have been the cost of an acreage reserve for 1958."

He conceded that the soil bank, approved by Congress last year as a $1,200,000,000 a year program for four years, is "temporarily expensive." But he said it would save money for taxpayers eventually if permitted to continue.

All Premiere Tickets to Be 'Reserved Seats'

All seats will be reserved for the Jerry Lewis picture, "The Delicate Delinquent," to be premiered for charity at the Plaza theater the night of Saturday, May 25, it was announced today.

They may be obtained at Dorothy Gray, Inc., 1074 North Palm Canyon Drive, (phone 2856) and are priced at $7.50, $5 and $3, according to Miss Gray, chairman of ticket sales. All proceeds will go to the Community Chest fund.

This will be another red carpet, klieg light event like last year's Bob Hope press junket, with a large representation of Hollywood notables, headed by the star of the picture, Jerry Lewis, scheduled for appearance.

Following the premiere which has been set for 9 o'clock, Lewis will act as host in the Starlite Room of Chi Chi for the second floor show and the public is urged to participate in the fun.

Airline Service Letters to CAB Still Possible

Jimmy Cooper, Chamber of Commerce manager, today announced that there still is time for public minded citizens to make known their wishes to the Civil Aeronautics Board for increased air service to Palm Springs.

The oral arguments were heard yesterday in Washington but at least for the next week the Board will have the matter under advisement and letters should be dispatched immediately to any of the following members of the CAB, in care of Commerce Building, Washington 25, D. C.: James R. Durfee, Chan Curney, Louis Hector, Harmer, Denny, G. Joseph Minetti.

In all probability, Cooper said, this will be the last opportunity the residents of Palm Springs will have for at least two years to secure increased air transportation between the Village and eastern points.

15 Selected As Slate for Freeholders

Three CV Residents Named at Meeting Here Last Night

City Councilman Jerry Sanborn was today named as Palm Springs representative on a board of 15 freeholders nominated last night by the Citizens Committee for Charter Government.

Two other Coachella Valley men were also listed on the slate endorsed by the committee, which met here at the Ranch Club.

Nominees to the Board of Freeholders, which is charged with the task of drafting a Riverside County Charter, will be placed before the county's voters for election on June 11.

THE PROPOSED freeholders' ballot lists candidates, many of whom are present or past members of political bodies, selected to obtain as equal an apportionment of representation as possible, according to Howard Barrett, committee executive secretary.

Barrett also warned the nominees that they could expect "strong opposition" from a group aligned against the charter. The group, Barrett charged, is attempting to "spread confusion."

Candidates to the Board of Freeholders are:

COACHELLA VALLEY: Sanborn, Gordon Cologne, attorney and Indio City Council member; and Helen Hester, of Coachella, a former supervisory candidate.

SAN GORGONIO PASS: Norman Davis, principal of Beaumont High School and former Congressional candidate.

BLYTE: Bruce Shangle, rancher and onetime candidate for Congress.

RIVERSIDE: Gordon Dunlap, Arlington farmer; Dr. Richard Brill, superintendent of the California School for the Deaf; Elsworth Cordell, general contractor; and Oscar Crowell, retired businessman.

JARUPA DISTRICT: John Correll, well driller.

ELSIÑORE-CORONA DISTRICT: Lester Hampton, citrus farmer; Dr. Charles Hirsch, physician and La Sierra College teacher; Fred Elbridge, rancher and onetime Congressional candidate.

HEMET-SAN JACINTO DISTRICT: Floyd Gilmore, former county supervisor, and John McSweeney, farmer.

TWO MEN, INCUMBENT Haig Harris, left, and Charles Wallace, right, will vie tomorrow for a single position on the Board of Education of the Palm Springs Unified School District. Polls will be open from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m. and bars and liquor stores within the district will be closed. Polls are at Cahulla School for voters living south of Ramon Road and in the City of Palm Springs; Katherine Finch school for voters living north of Ramon Road in Palm Springs; Cathedral City school for voters of Thousand Palms, Cathedral City and Rancho Mirage; and Desert Hot Springs School for voters in Desert Hot Springs, Garnet and in the northern area of the school district. Britain's H-Bomb Tests Show 'Negligible Fall-Out'

LONDON — Prime Minister Harold Macmillan said today Britain has succeeded in building a hydrogen bomb with "almost negligible fall-out."

Macmillan told the House of Commons that first reports from the Christmas Island test site indicate the explosion of Britain's first hydrogen bomb "proceeded as planned."

These first reports, he said, indicate that the fall-out has been "almost negligible."

MACMILLAN REFUSED to disclose any other details of the test in spite of a barrage of questions.

The successful H-bomb test sparked a move by the opposition Labor Party to block the rest of the series planned at the proving grounds the mid-Pacific Island.

Macmillan curtly rejected any idea of calling off the current tests.

"I am bound to say in discussing the matters of nuclear disarmament we shall now be in a better bargaining position," he said.

MACMILLAN WENT before the house to reply to Labor party complaints after going over the secret reports from Wednesday's test with members of the cabinet.

Macmillan qualified his statement about the negligible fall-out with a reminder that at this stage there were only preliminary reports on the local situation around the blast area.

He noted that the explosion took place at a high altitude. The "nu-

Texas Town Hardest Hit By Twister

Oklahoma, Kansas Forecast as New Victims Today

By United Press

Tornado warnings were posted in Oklahoma and Kansas today as the Texas Panhandle counted 30 dead and at least 60 injured in savage twisters that swarmed across the high plains Wednesday night.

The little town of Silverton, Tex., bore the brunt of the destructive winds. A tornado that looked like a berserk cloud of red sand rumbled through the town, killing 20 persons and injuring at least 60.

AT LEAST SIX other persons were injured elsewhere in the Texas Panhandle as a dozen or more tornadoes played a deadly game of hop, skip and jump over the flat countryside.

The tornadoes were unleashed by a clash of warm air with a cold Canadian air front. The violent weather dumped up to 10 inches of rain on Northern Oklahoma and a half-foot of snow in the Colorado Rockies.

The death dealing tornado smashed through 10 blocks of Silverton. It destroyed 25 homes, four grain elevators and a bar-rack used to house Mexican workers in cotton picking season. Fifteen other homes were damaged severely and 15 more damaged slightly.

THE STORM KNOCKED out the town's power and communications lines.

Heavy rains soaked Southern Kansas during the night, dumping unofficial amounts of six and one-half inches on the Wellington area.

The tornado in Silverton dis-gorged pieces of lumber and furniture from the homes it wrecked for a mile around. There was nothing except the foundation left of some homes. Five members of one family were reported killed.

A RESOLUTION OF THE DESERT BAR ASSOCIATION OF RIVERSIDE COUNTY CONCERNING THE RIVERSIDE COUNTY BUILDING BONDS PROPOSITION "A" AND "B"

The Desert Bar Association of Riverside County in meeting assembled, hereby resolves to support the $5,465,000.00 Riverside Building Bonds issues, Propositions "A" and "B," and to urge a "yes" vote by the voters of Riverside County at the special election to be held on June 11, 1957, for the following reasons:

NUMBER 1.

That the rapid population growth of Riverside County, it being the fifth fastest growing County in the State of California, has made imperative the need for immediate erection of public buildings to house County Governmental offices.

NUMBER TWO.

That at present the conditions in some County Buildings are so crowded that in order to provide quarters for personnel, doors have been removed from closets and stenographers put in those closets.

NUMBER THREE.

That at the present time the County is spending approximately $50,000.00 per year for renting space to house County Governmental offices, much of which expense could be used for the payment of interest and principal on the bond issue, an example being that in the City of Palm Springs the cheapest rental which the Board of Supervisors could find for quarters to house the Justice Court of the Palm Springs Judicial District was $650.00 per month.

NUMBER FOUR.

That the facilities of the Superior Court, Department 4 sitting in Indio, are woefully inadequate at the present time, the facilities of the Courtroom itself being too small, there being no proper facilities for the Deputy District Attorney, excepting in rented quarters, for the Court Reporter, or for a Jury Room, and such needs must be corrected.

NUMBER FIVE.

Proposition "A" provides for the issuance and sale of $4,430,000.00 worth of bonds to finance the erection of buildings; and Proposition "B" bonds in the amount of $1,035,000.00 to finance the purchase of land near the Courthouse in Riverside, and of the total of these bond issues in the total amount of $5,465,000.00, the Fourth Supervisorial District will be allotted to it for the acquisition of land and improvements in this District, $1,403,000.00, which is slightly more than 25% of the total issue, and this sum of $1,403,000.00 will be allotted for the Fourth Supervisorial District as follows:

(a) For the Blythe area, $288,000.00 to cover buildings for the extension in that area for the following County services: Justice Court, Jury Room, Sheriff and Jail, District Attorney, Probation Office, Coroner and Public Administration, Constable, County Clerk, Office of Health and Welfare, County and Safety Department, Assessor's Office, Agricultural Extension and Communications.

(b) In the Indio area the sum of $867,000.00 will be expended to build space for the proper housing of the following County services: Superior Courtroom, Jury Rooms, Law Library, Clerk's Office, Court Reporter's Office, District Attorney's Office, Probation Office, Coroner and Public Administration Office, Justice Court, Constable's Office, Sheriff and Jail, Office of Health and Welfare, Assessor's Office, Building and Safety Department, Agricultural Extension, Communications and branch of the Juvenile Hall.

(c) In the Palm Springs area the amount of $127,000.00 will be used to furnish adequate quarters for the Judge of the Justice Court, Constable's Office, Welfare Department, Building and Safety Department and Assessor's Office.

(d) In addition the sum of $141,000.00 is allotted to establish in either the Thermal or Blythe areas, a road camp.

NUMBER SIX.

To pay off these bond issues within 30 years, it is estimated that the taxpayer will pay 6 1/2% per $100.00 of assessed valuation, or the average home owner will pay $2.60 per year, 22c a month, or less than 1c a day, which at the end of 15 years will be reduced to 4c per $100.00 of assessed valuation, or $1.60 per year, or 14c a month, or less than 1/2c a day.

NUMBER SEVEN.

The members of the Desert Bar know that the cost to the taxpayer of the Fourth Supervisorial District to make the trip to Riverside to secure services or information, which will be made available to him in the Fourth District if these bond issues carry, or to have the personnel of Governmental Departments of Riverside make continued trips into the Fourth Supervisorial District to furnish these services or bring this information, are much greater than the costs of these bond issues.

In the interests of an efficient and economical government, the Desert Bar Association asks every voter in the Fourth Supervisorial District of Riverside County to vote "yes" on June 11, 1957, on the Riverside County Building Bonds.

UNANIMOUSLY PASSED, APPROVED AND ADOPTED this 10th day of May, 1957.

Graham Wins First Round of Crusade in N.Y.

NEW YORK (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham called on Protestant ministers today to try to turn his $1,300,000 New York Crusade into a "spiritual revolution" which will sweep America.

In the unlikely setting of Madison Square Garden, Billy Wednesday night began the biggest, toughest battle of his meteoric career—to sway cynical New Yorkers to Christ and thus fan a "spiritual fire" across the nation. He won the first round.

A NEAR-CAPACITY crowd of 18,500 persons of all walks and all ages jammed the big sports arena, shook its rafters with hymns and sat in reverent silence as he spoke.

Then a record first-night number of them stepped forward to make their "decision for Christ." First singly and then like a tide rolling down from the upper reaches of the Garden, 485 persons came to stand before Billy's flower-banked pulpit. They overflowed into the nearby press section and adjacent hallways.

IT WAS NOTHING like the 5,000 who came forward one night in the Philippines or the 3,200 at London's Wembley Stadium. But Graham was buoyed by what he called the "overwhelming response—beyond anything we had anticipated on the first night."

The 38-year-old North Carolina evangelist scheduled a meeting this morning with the Protestant ministers of the 1,540 New York area churches which are sponsoring his long-awaited, carefully-planned crusade.

Marine Private Tests Belief Today

CAMP PENDLETON (AP)—An 18-year-old Marine private, who has decided he is a conscientious objector, was scheduled to be tried by summary court-martial today for refusing to pick up his rifle.

Pvt. Peter H. Green, Evanston, Ill., refused to accept the weapon March 18 after he came to the conclusion that it was wrong to kill men. However, he previously had fired his M-1 rifle in the Marines and qualified as a marksman.

Marine officers have made it clear that Green, a Methodist, was not being tried for being a conscientious objector, but for refusing to obey what was termed a lawful order.

Green, who entered the Marines Corps as a volunteer in September of 1956, was assigned a military defense counsel. He is supported in his fight to be recognized as a conscientious objector by both the Southern California Arizona Conference of Methodist Churches and the First Methodist Church of nearby Oceanside.

The young Marine could be sentenced to as long as six months in prison and given a bad conduct discharge if he were convicted.

Needy Children of Veterans To Be Aided by Poppy Sale

Children of war veterans, left in need as a delayed result of wars fought before they were born, will benefit from the wearing of poppies in memory of the war dead here on Poppy Day, May 24, according to Dorothy Morrison, Child Welfare Chairman of the American Legion Auxiliary, who is working on preparation for Poppy Day.

Contributions made by those who wear the Auxiliary's memorial poppies will go into the child welfare and rehabilitation funds of the Auxiliary, to be used in supporting the Auxiliary Unit's work for children and veterans during the coming year, Mrs. Morrison explained.

"Death, disability and broken families are continually bringing hardships and handicaps to children of veterans," she said. "Poppy Day contributions help the Auxiliary aid these children, hold families together and give unfortunate youngsters a fair start in life."

During the historic Berlin airlift, which started in 1948 when Russians blocked land and water routes to Germany's divided capital, Allied planes ferried 2,325,500 tons of food and fuel to the city.

Editor's Corner

'CITY OF THE FUTURE' FORMING IN THE SOUTH

A giant, strung-out metropolis is in the making in central North Carolina. Stretching in a half moon shape from Raleigh east to Charlotte, the area is known as the Piedmont Industrial Crescent where hundreds of new industrial plants have located during the past few years. Social scientists predict that this region will compare in size with New York City and Chicago within the next fifteen or twenty years.

The area, which includes several noted textile and furniture manufacturing centers is tied together by a backbone of well developed railroad and highway systems which are merging into a long but continuously developed area.

The scientists say that this new type metropolis will need a new type of government, economic system and social system to aid in solving the many problems that will arise. The Ford Foundation has just recently authorized a half million dollar grant for a five year study of the problems. This grant stemmed from studies which have been under way for some time at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Considerable interest in this study will no doubt be shown by other large metropolitan areas including San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Such areas as Sacramento County, for example, where rapid growth has brought with it all sorts of "growing pains," would have benefitted greatly through advanced planning. There are 199 local governments in Sacramento County below the Federal and State levels. In addition to the county government there are five city governments, 45 school districts and 148 special districts. This labyrinth of small, overlapping, and diversified types of special districts has caused no end of problems in the area about our state capital.

Advance Planning Benefits

The Urban Studies Committee of the University of North Carolina, with funds provided by the Ford Grant, has planned its research in five major study divisions which include urbanization trends in the South, industrial development trends, public policies and the way they affect urban growth, city and regional planning, and studies of community organization and civic leadership in urban development.

Whether or not the Piedmont Industrial Crescent may be able to unite into one huge metropolitan area is still subject to considerable speculation. In any event the study to be undertaken will be of great value in the future growth of the region and will be watched with much interest by other metropolitan centers throughout the country.

HOLMES ALEXANDER:

Cuba's Batista

HAVANA, Cuba.—Call this the story of two sergeants. Back in 1933 our Ambassador to Cuba, Sumner Wells, telegraphed the State Department that a "sergeant named Batista" had taken charge of the Havana Government, which was undergoing a bloody revolution.

Today I spent nearly 900 minutes jointly interviewing President Batista with David Sender of the Hearst Newspapers. The swarthy, barrel-chested, ex-sergeant was elected to a four-year term in 1954 and is not a candidate for re-election next year. On the way up, he jumped from Sergeant to Colonel to General, and after a political defeat he retired in 1945 to Daytona Beach to a house where he will go when his term ends in February, 1959.

THERE SHOULD BE no misunderstanding. I am down here at Batista's invitation and as his guest with the advance knowledge of the State Department. Batista's advisors in Washington thought it would help relations between the two countries for a couple of United States newsmen to come and report the facts.

Well, the facts are that the Republic of Cuba is still in an early stage of the evolution toward self-government. President Batista represents a coalition of three or four major parties. There are a dozen or so splinter parties, some with no more than 500 members, and occasionally they rise up and try to overthrow the Government by force and violence. When that happens, the Government troops shoot back and people get killed.

BUT THERE SEEMS to be no oppression of minority opinion, except of the Communist minority. Some years ago, Batista broke off relations with Russia because he believed that Russian Communists were trying to take over his country. Today he hunts out the Reds with secret police methods, and I imagine he has a short way with these dissenters.

Recently, however, with Cuban sugar going to Russia, there is said to be a lull in the eerie warfare of subversion and counter-subversion. Contrary to much misinformation, however, Batista does not treat all anti-Batistas as Communists. He readily admits he has non-Communist enemies.

The other sergeant I had in mind was killed in action during World War II, but he was a tall Texan named Reynolds, there is said to be a lull in the eerie warfare of subversion and counter-subversion. Contrary to much misinformation, however, Batista does not treat all anti-Batistas as Communists. He readily admits he has non-Communist enemies.

You might say that this is a homespun statement of American foreign policy at its honest and pragmatic best. An enemy nation is one that points its nose, meaning its guns, at us. A friendly nation is one—never mind its internal form of government—which flies peacefully along its chosen course.

The Republic of Cuba is friendly under Batista. There is American trade worth $700 million a year on this island. There are several hundred thousand American tourists and businessmen who come here every year. These persons and properties are safe because Batista, as chief of internal security and later as President, has established law and order. The signs are that he has also established a Constitutional government, one that has a fair chance of continuing after his time.

IT WILL BE asked, "Is Batista a dictator?" and I have the answer from Batista himself. He doesn't think he is; but he understands how outsiders might think so and he admits that circumstances might force the role upon him.

"But I am not afraid of that," he says in somewhat halting English. "Even if I become a dictator I would still be a man of the people and would govern for the people."

The words could have a variety of meaning, but therein lies the surmounting virtue of face-to-face reporting. What is the man's credibility? Well, we were seated in the President's private office inside the ornate marble palace.

HE WORKS HERE daily from mid-morning until 4 a. m. the next day, a 17-hour stint. On his desk was a colored photograph of his dark-haired, beautiful wife and four children. There is another child on the way, and he has three children and three grandchildren by a first marriage. His eldest son, a Princeton graduate last June in economics, is in business here. Next year another son will go to Harvard.

Also on the desk was a new book on Lincoln, whose biography Batista devours as fast as he can find them. There is no affection about this. Batista was born a peasant on an off-shore Cuban island, and his first attraction to Lincoln was to a poor boy who made good.

Today, I think, there is a not-so-strange affinity. After all, Lincoln and Batista are both up-from-poverty figures who were elected chiefs-of-state. Both in their time have had to suppress a rebellion with armed force.

Letters To The Editor

Editor, The Desert Sun: Have been reading The Desert Sun on a subscription and noted your editorials on subject of what Palm Springs needs for the entertainment of visitors.

Briefly, I agree with you that Palm Springs needs something (besides shops). Hope the Quarterhorse Racing proceeds as now planned.

Let me be the first, maybe, to suggest that the practically impossible and unfeasible Tram Project be scrapped. Instead, why not arrange to have a helicopter service take visitors not only to the mountain tops with a landing there, but short runs over the desert.

That is not an impossible project and then you would really have something real attractive in fact—which is not just a lot of dreaming on paper. Personally, I am very tired of hearing about all of the wonderful things Palm Springs is "going to have."

I understand, but I may be wrong—or at least it may be another idle dream on the part of the people publicizing it—but there was a publicity notice that a club subdivision project at Indylwild was anticipating helicopter service.

It would be interesting to know if anyone in Palm Springs has mentioned helicopter service for Palm Springs and vicinity. I have never heard of it. This could be done one way or another—at far less cost.

HELEN STRICKLAND, 512 South Hobart Blvd., Los Angeles 5, Calif.

P.S.: I have a small investment in vicinity of Palm Springs and so I am more or less interested in what goes on there. I have wondered why the "Tram" people think of spending several millions (when they get it) for something that could be done for less than a quarter million—or even on a percentage basis with some established firm.

'Boy—Get a Ladder'

THIS SIDE of The Sun

Now comes the time For relaxation. Yep, pretty quick It gives vacation.

First off, without quibbling, when you leave the desert, if just for two weeks or for all summer, don't leave the sun behind.

MAYBE, while on tour, you'll run into some cloudy days, experience some rain, a bit of stormy weather.

But you never need get out of touch with the desert. Just call circulation, 5905, and Orval Risvold, head of the Circulation Department will see to it that you have The Desert Sun, wherever you go.

Now, that's a fairly out-and-out plug but it's for your own good. Because in that way, you need never lose your contact with Palm Springs and what's going on in your favorite community.

SPEAKING of vacations, as I just was, I have heard many a solemn family counselor advise that a good vacation would be to just stay at home and relax.

Avoid the crowded highways, jammed hotels, resorts and so on.

They tell the old man to mix a cold one in a tall glass, lie in the hammock in the backyard and relax.

WELL, NOW that might be all right. But I am against that. For a thousand reasons but I can only think of two.

A—The service stations, the railroad lines, the airlines, the bus companies, the hotel and inn keepers, have to live, don't they? And they need the tourists. That hammock vacation would be bad for our economy.

B—But the biggest objection I have is: What kind of a vacation would that be for the woman of the house?

NO CHANGE at all — and a vacation is supposed to provide a change from humdrum daily living. The washing would have to be taken care of, the meals planned, the kids looked out for. Am thinking of her. She needs a rest, too.

Leave the 'little monsters' with grandma while she and papa go on a trip, stay at some good hotel and rest. No meals to cook, no laundry, no kids under foot, no household problems.

If that doesn't earn me a citation from the Mothers of America, nothing will.

BEING ON THE ROAD a lot, I have come to the conclusion that one of the worst enemies of orderly traffic is the left turn.

Many of the new highways are built with provisions for this. Like left turn lanes. But a lot of the old ones are not. There's a challenge to our engineers.

Nothing is so exasperating as seeing the light change two or three times while the guy ahead is trying to turn left.

INEZ ROBB:

Let's Move to the Basic

There is a big rumpus all around the globe today, involving some of the world's both great and good people, concerning the effects on humanity of nuclear fallout from hydrogen-bomb tests. This rumpus or debate has been going on for some time, but it was given added emphasis recently by the plea of that saintly character, Dr. Albert Schweitzer, to halt the testing of atomic weapons lest such explosions do irreparable harm to man and his descendants.

A committee of the Atomic Scientists Association of Britain as well as Dr. Linus Pauling, Nobel Prize-winning chemist of the California Institute of Technology, (among others) support Dr. Schweitzer in his conclusions.

AS USUAL, THE U.S. Atomic Energy Commission has its authority on radioactive fallout, Dr. Willard F. Libby, waiting in the wings to insist that fallout from the new and improved U.S. hydrogen bomb wouldn't hurt a fly. He wrote Dr. Schweitzer in reply, or rather, rebuttal.

Ever since the world began to worry about the effects of hydrogen-bomb fallout, it has been the contention of Admiral Lewis L. Strauss, chairman of our Atomic Energy Commission, that the after-effects of the up-dated American hydrogen bomb are beneficial. Our hydrogen bomb does not give off that nasty, deadly strontium-90. Our bomb gives off soothing, health-giving Channel No. 5!

HOWEVER, IT IS one woman's opinion that all this argument as to whether radioactive fallout is the bane or the blessing of mankind is just so much eyewash. In either case, what the debaters are doing is no more than idly swatting at the fleas on a mad dog at large in the world.

Let us, for goodness sake, quit flicking at fleas and aim at the dog, or atomic weapons themselves. Let men of good will all over the world press for the abolition of atomic weapons. Certainly, it will only be a mile more difficult to get nations to agree to the abolition of nuclear bombs.

EARL WILSON:

Yoo Hoo, Out in Videoland

NEW YORK—do you know you are pretty lucky?

But I understate it. You're downright pampered — "spoiled rotten."

You're not only living in the best-fed, best-clothed, best-governed country—but now also in the best entertained. And you're probably getting the biggest ego in the world because you've now become a TV critic with tremendous power to make and break stars.

Talk about "influential" Broadway drama critics!

You sit around in your pajama bottoms. With one twist of the little dial, you can put Sid Caesar out of work.

YOU MAKE BIG MEN out of Lawrence Welk and Tennessee Ernie Ford. You can do more magic with that dial than Aladdin could with his lamp.

And folks outside of New York especially have the power.

The Hollywood and New York big shots used to think they ran Show Business. No, it's the ordinary Joes between the coasts, bless their little cotton-pickin', dial-twistin' hearts.

"Many New Yorkers like Sid Caesar," I told a midwestern woman.

"We don't," she said. "We don't think he has any sense of humor."

I WAS AMAZED—his satirical comedy isn't broad enough.

"How do you feel about Steven and Ed?" I asked.

"A lot of us wonder why Ed has so many foreign stars when there are plenty of people right here in America who should get the work."

Again I was astonished. Ed, in his roaming, searching for great acts, probably never thought of that.

Jackie Gleason tells me, "It isn't the ratings that count, it's the sales." He scoffs at ratings, saying, "When I'm on, everybody's watching so intently, they wouldn't think of getting up to answer the phone."

ONE THING THAT worries me is that you're being entertained so much with TV practically around the clock that we'll all soon be too busy watching TV to do any work.

You remember work, don't you?

It was very popular years ago. People went in for it all the time before TV. It sort of disappeared. Didn't get a very good rating, I guess.

THE MIDNIGHT RARE Mrs. Edward G. Robinson tells friends at the Harwyn her name "won't be Robinson much longer" ... Marilyn Monroe chose not to testify in California's case vs. Confidential ... If Frank Costello'd talk, he could get $1,000,000 for his life story, to be published after his death ... CBS is dangling terrific dough in front of Jackie Gleason to get him to continue weekly, but he still says no.

One wild police theory: The gunman meant to miss Costello — was only trying to warn him, hence only one shot ... Ricki Lane was booked by Irving Heller to open the Waldemere Decoration Day ... Keith Funston, Stock Exchange chief, had never seen a horse race — till the Ky. Derby ... Gus Van collapsed while performing at Valley Stream Park Inn and was hurried to Meadowbrook Hospital ... Barbara Nichols, getting so much publicity now in Hollywood, was about to give up her acting ambitions two years ago to become a strip-teaser.

A SAILOR LOOKING for a room on 43rd St. tried to get one at the "Hotel Paradiso" which, of course, isn't a hotel but the Bert Lahr-Angela Lansbury show. Finding out what it was, he bought a ticket and saw the show but did not sleep there.

Big lawsuit coming up! Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt sued for $100,000 by St. Louis ad man Frank Kurka as a result of fight in Hotel Plaza lobby a year ago which I witnessed. Row started when somebody booed an entertainer, a woman hit Kurka with her shoe, and Vanderbilt joined in. Now I'm to be a witness.

With Cuba launching a tourism drive, Emil V. Hegyl, prez of Reiter-Foster Oil, is taking some bows for buying the Veradero International Hotel at a good price.

EARL'S PEARLS: An Ohio husband told his wife: "Yes, we HAVE been through a lot together ... everything I had!"

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Vampira Goes Blonde

HOLLYWOOD — Frank Sinatra's opening shot against Look Magazine, target of his $2,600,000 libel suit: He has prevailed upon the producers of "The Pride and the Passion" to cancel all advertising for the picture in Look.

Her press agent asked Marlene Dietrich to write a magazine piece titled "How to be a Grandparent." Marlene nixed it with this: "I'm up to my neck with the grandmotherly bit!" ... Vampira has cut her long, unkempt hair and her long, unkempt fingernails and gone blonde for a role in "The Living Dead of Hollywood." ... Now there's a title for you! ... Sign over a Hollywood Boulevard bar: "You Can't Drown Your Troubles in Drink—They Swim!"

ELVIS PRESLEY & Co. found a way to keep the clattergonging friends from annoying them in their suite at the Beverly Wilshire. When the kids come a-knockin' the Presleys come out a-rockin'—wearing horror masks and howling and screaming, while the teenagers run in holy horror.

A deal is dangling for Nat "King" Cole to play W. C. Handy in "St. Louis Blues" at Paramount ... There's also talk of Eartha Kitt, Ethel Waters and Satchmo Armstrong, same cinema ... Meanwhile, Nat's mate, Maria, is set for the French frill in John Wayne's next, "The Big Red One." These and sundry items I picked up on a fast one-night spin up to San Francisco to attend the world premiere of Sammy Fuller's "China Gate" ... Nat plays his first dramatic role in this, and the guy's great.

STANDING IN THE forecourt of the Bay City's Fox Theatre, watching a covey of cute little Chinese-American baton-twirlers entertain the delegation from Hollywood, Barry Sullivan flashed a cable from Bill Dozier dated London: "I know all you people from Hollywood are causing the second big earthquake in my favorite city and I just want you to know Big Brother is watching."

Sullivan, incidentally, guested on a teenage TV show in SF during his stay. One youngster asked: "Mr. Sullivan, would you rather play a lover or a killer?" Barry's reply: "What's the difference — they're interchangeable!"

MARILYN MONROE isn't going to have a baby, despite all the hoopla ... Liz Taylor Todd will be tied to that back brace for another six months ... Kay Kendall's sole attendant at her wedding to Rex Harrison will be her mother ... Memo to Frank Sinatra: The guy out in front is in the best position to get kicked from behind.

George de Witt tells of the father who bawled out his youngster for being at the bottom of his class. "But pop," butted Junior, "they teach the same thing at both ends!"

TV TOPICS — If CBS-TV follows through on its plan to drop Bob Crosby's daytime show (Bob is bellowing for a nighttime spot), I can picture the protests piling up in the network's mail-room right now. Bing's younger brother, on the telebeam for quite a spell, has picked up a posse of daytime viewers through the years.

Were you mothers happy about what Philip Wyle, The Man Who Hates Momism, had to say about you on Mike Wallace's Mother's Day show? NO? I didn't think you would! ... Lon Chaney, Jr., is making broad commercials at M-G-M ... Jimmy Durante's negative thought while skimming through the Los Angeles society pages: "De cream o' society sure looks sour t'day!"

Take a look at Polly Bergen's new Columbia album, "Bergen Sings Morgan," and note the line on the cover that lauds Polly's "brilliant performance" as Miss Morgan on Playhouse 90's "Helen Morgan Story" May 16. The guy who wrote that critique so far ahead of time must own a crystal ball.

I've often wondered why some smart TV sponsor hasn't snared pretty, port Patricia Munsel for a series—and now Buick has. Pat will perk up the 8:30 p.m. Friday slot in the fall when she goes live on ABC-TV ... Idle Thought: Will Ed Sullivan ever guest on Steve Allen's show or vice-versa? ... Philosophical flippancy from an out-of-work TV thespian: "Oh, well, it's always darkest before the dawn."

NEW YORK — Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), calling for a new American policy toward Russian satellites which would include loans to Communist Poland:

"Other satellites, we may be sure, are watching, and if we fall to help the Poles, who will dare stand up to the slans and look westward?"

Those installed in office were: Mrs. Allen Smith, president; Mrs. William Wilson, first vice president; Mrs. Paul Payne, second vice president; Mrs. Robert Morrison, corresponding secretary; Mrs. William Bronstein, recording secretary; Mrs. Raymond Martinez, treasurer.

Ex-Opera Star Vacations Here

Mrs. William Bustard of Hollywood, frequent visitor to the Village, is vacationing at the Tahitian hotel. Mrs. Bustard is a former grand opera star and sang in Europe under the name of Elena Neucote. She sang in Italy in the title role of "Aida," played the role of "Mimi" in LaBoheme, "Elizabeth" in Tannhauser, and was also heard in "Madam Butterfly," "Faust" and "Il Trovatore."

Also vacationing at the Tahitian are Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hahn and son Brian of Los Angeles. This is the Hahns' fifth season on the desert.

Off for Holiday

Mrs. Edwina Partridge left Thursday for the summer. She will go first to China Lake to be with her daughter, Mrs. Lester Wolther, and then plans a visit to Grand Canyon before going to Long Beach to spend the rest of vacation time at her home there. Mrs. Partridge plans to return to the Village sometime in October.

Larry Coulton Betrothed to Judy Bauer

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Bauer of 8642 Gregory Way, Los Angeles, have announced the engagement of their daughter Judith to Larry Coulton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin H. Coulton of 550 Mesquite.

Judith, a graduate of Beverly Hills High School, is a student at Los Angeles City College. Her fiancé graduated from the Palm Springs High School and attended the University of Arizona. He is co-owner of Coulton's Office Supplies on Sunny Dunes Road, and the young couple plan to make their home in Palm Springs after their marriage next May.

If fruit juice or wine is spilled on the tablecloth, quickly cover the spot with salt. Then pour boiling water through the stain.

THE BETROTHAL of Judith Bauer and Larry Coulton has been announced by her parents Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Bauer of 8642 Gregory Way, Los Angeles. The picture of the engaged pair was taken at the Senior Prom at Beverly Hills High School last year.

Early Resident Has Eye Surgery

Mrs. McKinney's family and the many friends of this pioneer Villager are all hoping for a speedy recovery.

To Be Honored At Meeting

A Villager will be an honored guest on May 23, when Delta Phi Upsilon, Honorary Education Association, will have its Oakland-East Bay Alumnae Association meeting at the home of Mrs. Howard Stone of 1136 Clarendon Crescent, Oakland, for a buffet luncheon.

Mrs. Henry (Ruth) Passow of 425 Stevens Road, Palm Springs, long time member of the organization, has been invited as an honored guest, and will show pictures of her recent European tour.

Doodles

By ROGER PRICE

"EGGS WITH WINDOWS FOR COUNTING CHICKENS BEFORE THEY'RE HATCHED"

The Eggs in this Doodle were developed by my Colleague, Dr. Schweine, and although the idea seemed excellent at the time it later proved to be impracticable. For one thing the Chicks were uncooperative and refused to keep their side of the Windows clean, which made it impossible to look inside. Dr. Schweine solved that problem by installing Casement Type Windows, but then the Chicks became self-conscious from being peeked at so he had to build some tiny Venetian Blinds to install in the Shells. Because these extras brought the price of each Egg up to Five Dollars the Public refused to buy them and instead of making a fortune like he planned, Dr. Schweine went broke. Served him right for counting his Chicks before they were hatched.

SPORTS PARADE TODAY'S

NEW YORK (AP) — Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson today faced the possibility of defending his title in July against Zora Folley, not a snake charmer or a belly dancer but s'help me, Hannah, listed as the seventh ranking challenger.

The reason behind this startling development is a glib-talking Don Quixote named Gus D'Amato, the owner of Patterson who has declared willing war against the promotional monopoly of the International Boxing Club. D'Amato also promised to boycott any challengers bound to the IBC by exclusive contracts.

This poses an interesting problem. Most of the top six challengers — Hurricane Jackson, Eddie Machen, Harold Carter, Willie Pas-trano, Harold Johnson and Bob Satterfield — always manage to obtain a full share of lucrative IBC television work. The inference may be drawn that they are playing footsie with the IBC.

Now, the IBC still isn't out of business, even though it has been declared a monopoly. It will box furiously in federal court next week to squeeze out as much leeway as possible.

IF THE IBC, through fast foot-work, manages to protect most of its exclusive promotional contracts, it can be anticipated that Patterson will be treated like a process server with the mumps. In this case the IBC can be expected to line up a series of bouts among the top heavyweights to keep them in action.

Fighters have furious appetites, particularly heavyweights. Thus one bout against Patterson — which is all that most of them could ever hope for — wouldn't hold forth much hope for a prosperous future. But boxing a round-robin for the IBC would keep them working, and eating.

This is not to say that D'Amato isn't right to challenge the monopoly. It's simple that he figures to run out of windmills with extreme rapidity.

Andrews Killed In Race Practice

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — The auto racing fraternity mourned the death of Keith Andrews today and wondered whether his crash in Nino Farina's new roadster would wreck the Italian's plans to compete in the 500-mile Speedway classic.

He lost control of the sleek, maroon colored car on the north-west turn, slammed into the inside retaining wall at a speed of about 136 m.p.h. and died of a broken neck and internal injuries.

CINCINNATI (AP) — Big Ted Kluszewski, determined to "show fans I'm not through" with baseball, began a series of exercises today designed to get him in shape to rejoin the Cincinnati Redlegs by June 9.

The home run slugger returned home from Boston Wednesday after undergoing extensive tests at Lahey Clinic, where doctors advised Kluszewski to get in shape and play ball because "the disc is not ruptured."

Kluszewski was advised to do a lot of swimming and to do a series of "bumps and grinds" like a burlesque dancer in order to strengthen his hip.

Mobile Homes

By VIRGINIA DAVIS

Casual trailer living is best exemplified in mobile homes in Palm Springs, where everyone spends at least nine months out of the year out-of-doors, and May and June are the inspiration for many patio and barbecue parties when smaller groups gather for brunch, buffet suppers and dinners.

Many such parties were given this week, among which was the cocktail party hosted by Jessie and Clarence Adams, honoring their guest, Ellen Schults from Olympia, Wash.

THE PATIO SETTING was enhanced with a walled background of white oleanders and spring flowers, where a gay and convivial group gathered to greet the honored guest and to bid farewell to those who were leaving.

Among those invited were Ethel and Lynis Nelson, Nona and "Fuz" Ralph, Dell Ferris, Jessie and Emory Harnden, Doris and Fred Harnden, Gertrude and Dr. Mellius, Becky and Eric Ericson, Clyde and Gladys Jones, Hazel and Clay Morrow, Edith Schonek, Virginia and Dr. Lincoln Cromwell, Nellie and Frank Cromwell, Inez and Ed Olerud, Amelia and Bob Irvine, Rosa and John Cassidy, Alvira and Dave Evans, Virginia Davis, Adalade and Dr. Boyd McCarthy, Mamie and Leo Burns, Betty and Doug LeMountain, Evelyn and Eugene Cox, and the honor guest, Ellen Schults.

DELL FERRIS was the honor guest Saturday evening of her many friends in De Luxe. Cocktails were served at Doris and Fred Harnden's, followed by a buffet supper on the spacious patio of the Morrow's.

Surrounded in a bower of tropical plants and flowers and soft flood lights, the long buffet table was lovely with pink lace cloth, pansies and miniature gardenias, and laden with an elaborate assortment of cold meats and hors d'oeuvres.

Present were Maude and Rudy Campbell, Lou and Vic Laursen, Alvira and Dave Evans, John Langley, Jessie and Clarence Adams, Doris and Fred Harnden, Jessie and Emory Harnden, Inez and Ed Olerud, Gertrude and Dr. Mellius, Gladys and Clyde Jones, Nona and "Fuz" Ralph, Ethel and Lynis Nelson, Hazel and Clay Morrow and the honor guest, Dell Ferris.

ROSA AND JOHN Cassidy have had a number of guests recently, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Moore and daughters, Cheryl and Linda, from Englewood; also Mr. and Mrs. Albert Duryea of Monrovia. Mrs. Ivy King of Long Beach was a dinner guest Sunday evening, and the Cassidy's three grandchildren spent their Easter vacation with them.

Betty Schroeder, who was a member of Dora Tennyson's class in Non-Fiction Writing at De Luxe this season, has had one of her stories accepted by Mobile Living Magazine. Betty is the third member of the class of ten who have had their stories accepted by trailer magazines. Her subject was "My Privileged Children."

Dr. and Mrs. Lincoln Cromwell will host a cocktail party and Tea-Dance to all residents of De Luxe, Sunday, May 26, from 3 to 5 p.m. in the Clubroom.

All residents of De Luxe are invited.

All have been close personal friends for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Miller were honored on their fifteenth wedding anniversary Saturday night. It was a complete surprise to Mrs. Miller, who thought they were to have a quiet dinner together. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brady of Palm Desert and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Anderson brought along the steaks and all that adds to a barbecue dinner party. The three couples have been friends of long standing.

New Firemen

Onetime Communist Prisoner Thanks Americans for 'Life'

By AL LE ANCE

Propped up in his bed at Desert Hospital, Rudolph Levko, one time prisoner of Czechoslovakian Communists, today delivered his message to the American people.

"I want to thank you—the people of America—for giving me the opportunity to live," he said, speaking in careful, halting English.

"Everyone should know how it feels to me."

LEVKO'S SIMPLE statement will probably never find its place in a book of famous quotations, but it is something he's been thinking about for a long time.

The 48-year-old cabinet maker suffered a broken leg and injured neck when an auto knocked him off his bicycle last week.

"I have nothing to do here but think," he explained, peering over a monstrous cast encasing his left leg. "So I write it all down here."

MOVING STIFFLY in his confining neck-brace, Levko reached for two pages of stationery, covered with painstakingly pencilled lettering explaining the feelings summed up in his declaration of gratitude.

The pages told how this inlay artist and woodcarving expert invested years of labor in his trade through many cities of Europe, and how, after 17 years, he built up a brisk woodworking factor in Czechoslovakia.

THE FACTORY closed and Levko went into a Communist prison when he refused to join the Party. If they had known his efforts in the organization of a Democratic Party, he might have been shot. Thanks to a prison guard who was "Democratic inside and Communist outside," and not above a little bribery, Levko escaped after two months—shortly before he was to be shipped to Siberia.

He fled to Canada in 1950, where he finished one of his most prized works of art—a wooden portrait of the Statue of Liberty, started with bits of wood carefully hidden from prison eyes.

LEVKO REGARDS the portrait as a symbol of the longing he felt for Democracy, although such a life existed only in a dream world when he began the work.

Levko's portrait, consisting of 375 cut and stained wood fragments, took 400 hours to complete. Levko, who now lives and works in Palm Springs, left the picture with his sister in Cleveland, Ohio, where he spent the past four years.

Cathedral City

By JEAN PATANE

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Elmore and son, Paul, will leave the first of the week for their new home in Spring Valley, near San Diego. The Elmore family sold their home in Berton Hills to Mr. and Mrs. John Bajusz, owners of the Flame Restaurant in Palm Springs. Paul, who graduated from Palm Springs last year, plans on entering San Diego State College in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Martin returned last week from a four day jaunt to San Francisco, and on Sunday Mrs. Martin (Jackie) left for Los Angeles with Mrs. Dottie Stein (Mary Helen Shop) to attend Market Week.

Honored at the Cathedral City Community Church services on Mother's Day were the youngest mother, Mrs. George Rodman, and the oldest mother, Mrs. Agnes Gould. Last Sunday there also was a prayer of dedication for Ed Dering who left later in the day for Omaha, Neb., as an elder commissioner for the Riverside Presbytery at the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Estel and children, Debra, Rhonda, Patrick and Robert, are now settled in their new home on Bel Air Road. Harry is the owner of the meat department in Cathedral Grocer.

The Trenton J. Dunphys spent Mother's Day weekend in Los Angeles with Mrs. Dunphy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones, and Mrs. Virginia Dunphy. Sunday they all enjoyed dinner at the Plantation. Mrs. Virginia Dunphy returned with them to spend a few weeks in the sun.

Little Barbara Ann Busby, seven-week-old granddaughter of the Milton Busbys, was brought home last Monday after five weeks in Corona Hospital. She is continuing to improve but will have to return to Corona each week for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Elsner of Glendale were in Cathedral City over the weekend visiting at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Miller.

Mrs. Joseph K. Williams, the former Kay Busby, left Sunday by car with Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Burnside, for Seattle, Wash., where she boarded a plane for Kodiak, Alaska, where her husband, Cpl. William has been stationed since January. En route, she stayed at the home of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Pearson, in Eugene, Ore.

A dinner party at her home on "E" Street honored Miss Sally Gorges on her thirteenth birthday last Monday night. Her classmates wishing her happy birthday were Margaret Whitney, Judy Jorgensen, Linda Lake and Marsha Morris.

Visiting at the home of the Alfred F. Patanes were Mrs. Patanes sister and brother-in-law, the Jerry McGentys and boys, Pat and Mike, of Covina.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Swinnerton enjoyed an extended weekend at their desert home on Treasure Trail.

Women's Group Elects Officers For Next Year

Officers were elected and inducted at the final meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Cathedral City Community Church.

Mrs. Evelyn DeVall, vice president of the Presbyterial, came from Banning to conduct the Devotional. Guest speaker was Mrs. Don Macpherson, president of the Palm Springs Community Church Women's Circle, who gave helpful and interesting suggestions on the organization of Women's Circles. Retiring president Mrs. Marcia Brown was presented with an Honorary Certificate and a gift in appreciation of her service to the Auxiliary during the past year.

In an impressive candle dedication ceremony, the Rev. James Arnold inducted the following newly elected officers: President, Mrs. Jessie Dering; first vice president, Mrs. Veta Arnold; second vice president, Mrs. Mildred Wickland; recording secretary, Mrs. Evelyn Park; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Lucille Paulsen, and treasurer, Mrs. Marie Newman.

Cathedral City Youth Center Plans Dance, Wiener Bake

Nineteen members were in attendance at the second meeting of the reactivated Cathedral City Teenage Center held at King View Trailer Park Tuesday night. Dancing followed the business session.

There will be a dance at the Town Hall Saturday night, May 18, and on May 25 members will gather at Tamarisk Park in Palm Springs for a Wiener Bake and dancing, preceded by a short business meeting. Activities are being planned for each Saturday night throughout the summer.

Officers elected at the meeting last week were: President, Pat Hayhurst; vice president, Cathy Kelley; secretary, Marie Jamberitz; treasurer, Karen Hansen, and sergeant at arms, Tom Larstead.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Elsner of Glendale were in Cathedral City over the weekend visiting at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Miller.
